

Risk Management Training Courses

Unit 1 – Introduction to Risk Management

Course overview

- What is risk management?
- How is carried out?
- Who should be involved?
- Introduction to AS/NZS 4360:2004
- Risk assessment criteria and context
- Risk identification
- Risk assessment
- Integration of risk with business/organisational objectives
- Risk ownership
- Control framework assessment

Unit 1 target audience

- Staff
- Supervisors
- Managers

Unit 1 risk knowledge base

- Limited or none

Unit 2 – Developing the Risk Management programme

Course overview

- Review of AS/NZS 4360:2004
- Risk appetite and tolerance
- Risk treatment process
- Integration of risk assessment and risk treatment
- Risk management policy development
- Communication and consultation
- Monitor and review
- Risk management plan
- Risk management implementation

Unit 2 target audience

- Supervisors
- Mid-level business managers
- Risk co-ordinators

Unit 2 risk knowledge base

- Basic understanding of risk management
- Exposure to risk assessment

Unit 3 – Advanced Risk Management

Course overview

- AS/NZS 4360:2004 review
- Development of the risk management culture
- Positive risk management
- Integrating positive with negative risk
- Risk and risk transfer funding
- Integration of risk with management systems
- Risk, governance, audit and compliance
- Risk and business performance improvement

Unit 3 target audience

- Risk managers
- Quality managers
- Senior/executive managers

Unit 3 risk knowledge base

- Exposure to risk assessment and risk treatment
- Reasonably good understanding of risk management